"Ovlascenje" from Savez Studenata Jugoslavije. This paper was issued to the source as a general letter of introduction from the Student Union Office in Belgrade. It is a general introduction and recommendation to such student offices as he may visit, stating that he is travelling through Macedonia and is interested in the dances, songs and general cultural background of the area. The paper was issued on his request of 20 August 1952 by Pero Ivacic, a member of the Committee of Yugoslav Students.

"NR Makedonije, Skoplje; Narodnom Odboru, Bijelo Polje; and Novi Pazar. Three papers issued by the Ministry of Science and Culture, Belgrade, 20 August 1952. They are general requests for aid and cooperation of subordinate ministries of culture. They identify the source as a student at Harvard who is interested in native songs. These three letters of introduction are signed by Krista Djordjevic, an officer in the Ministry of Science and Culture, Belgrade. The initials S.F. - S.N. stand for the words meaning "Down with Fascism; Freedom of the People."

Two documents, written in Cyrillic, are border zone passes issued by the police in Macedonia. They were checked by the police as a security measure. They cover the Yugo-Greek and Yugo-Bulgarian border zones. Passports were not required by the border-zone police; only these passes were necessary.
